NORTHMAN 1972

Debbie -
Is a really great person who has always been understanding and fun to be with -
It's hard to be with - what it'll be like when we graduate - but let's have fun
and not think
about that yet ps.
Friends forever -
Terrie

Debbie,
Although I don't know you well, I'm glad we rode the same bus. Very best to see ya next year.
Hope to see ya next year.
Good Luck. Debbie Barnett

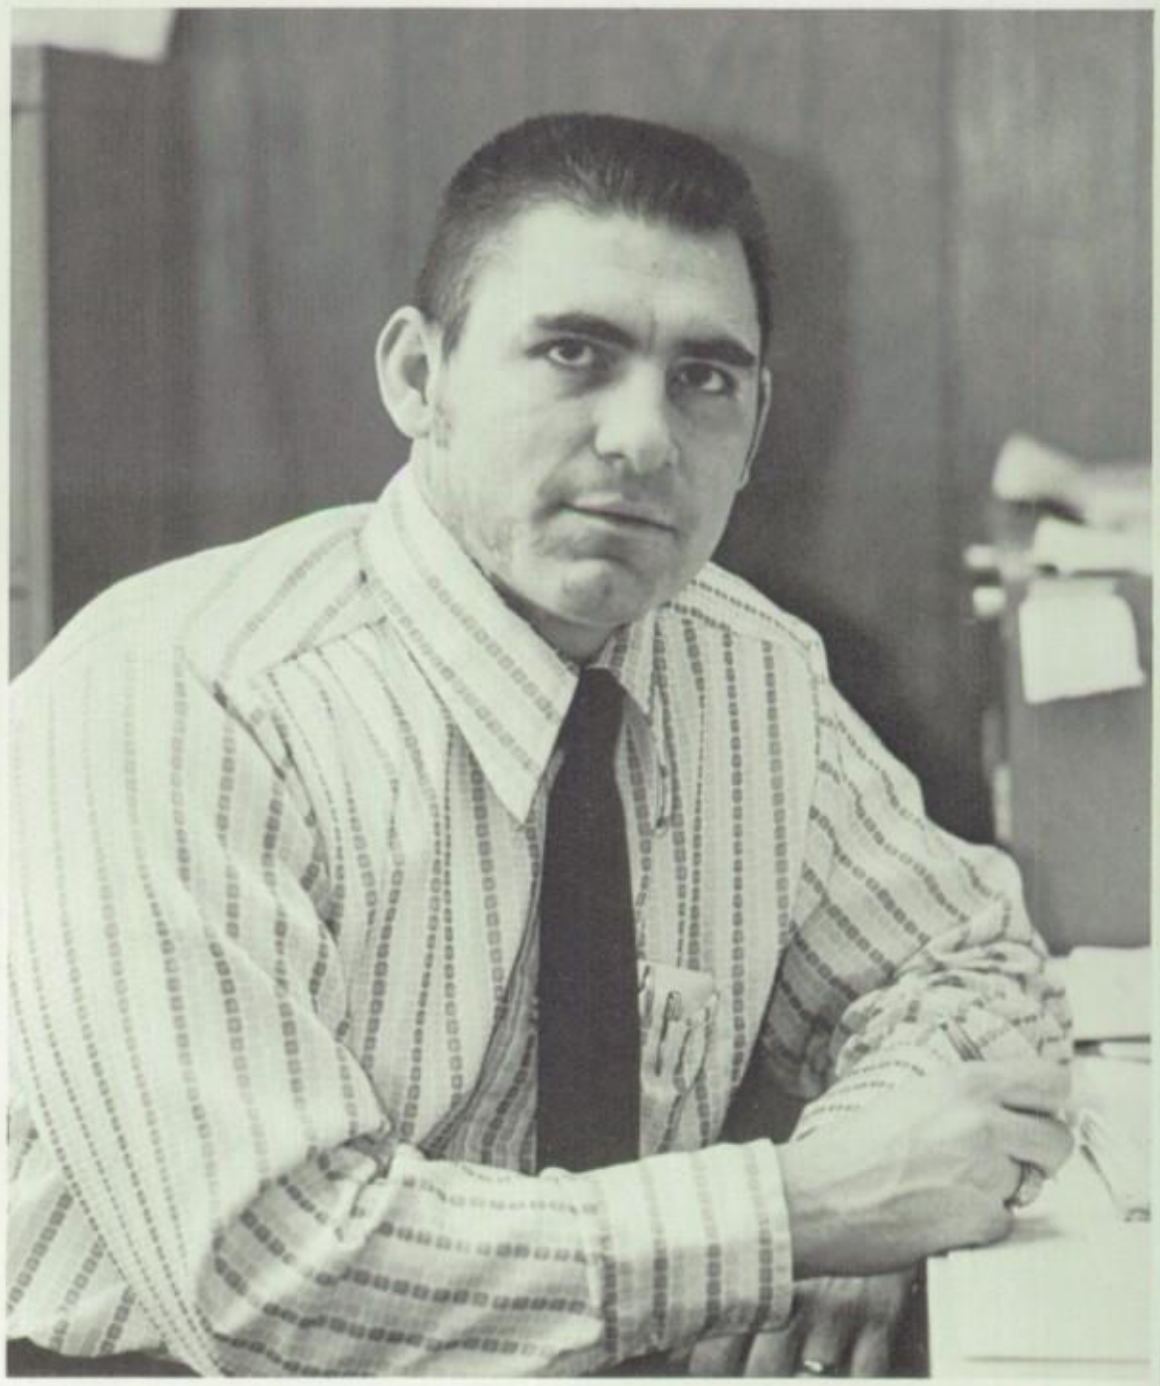
And Teachers

Remember Too

Principal of North White for two years, Mr. Henrriott has built a firm foundation of educational atmosphere. Easy to talk to, Mr. Henrriott's door remains open to the students for any kind of help.

Mr. Jerry Jernas has completed his first year as Guidance Counselor at North White. Mr. Jernas has shown his interest in the students in many ways. Problems form where to go to college to needing a late pass for class are helped here.



Mrs. Esther Mohler, (BOTTOM) a well known face at North White, continues to serve Mr. Henrriott's secretary. Along with Mrs. Julie Gutwein (TOP) Mrs. Mohler faces a large number of tiny problems daily and solves them with keeping a smile on her face. Both ladies are appreciated by the student body for all their work. Mrs. Anetta Fairchild (MIDDLE) hears about the ills of the student patiently. Whether it's a cut finger or a splitting headache (perhaps brought on by the test next period) Mrs. Fairchild knows the solution.

Once Upon

Putting a musical together is a joint effort of many people. Each individual in a lead role must be carefully trained in speaking, singing, and acting. This year's production involved the vocal music department, the instrumental music department, and the drama club.

Rich Fehrenbacker as the king hams a bit for the camera.

The royal court members (court) wait to try a number again — striving for perfection.

In dress rehearsal, Bob Garwood and Jeanette Pederson pass gracefully through the ballet sequence. Unfortunately, a little fast movement blurred the picture.

Diane Hendress and Joy Copeland, ladies of the court, attempt to reactions to a funny remark of the Queen.

A Mattress

On these pages we've tried to record what goes into the making of a show. The public performances give little hint of such scenes as appear here.

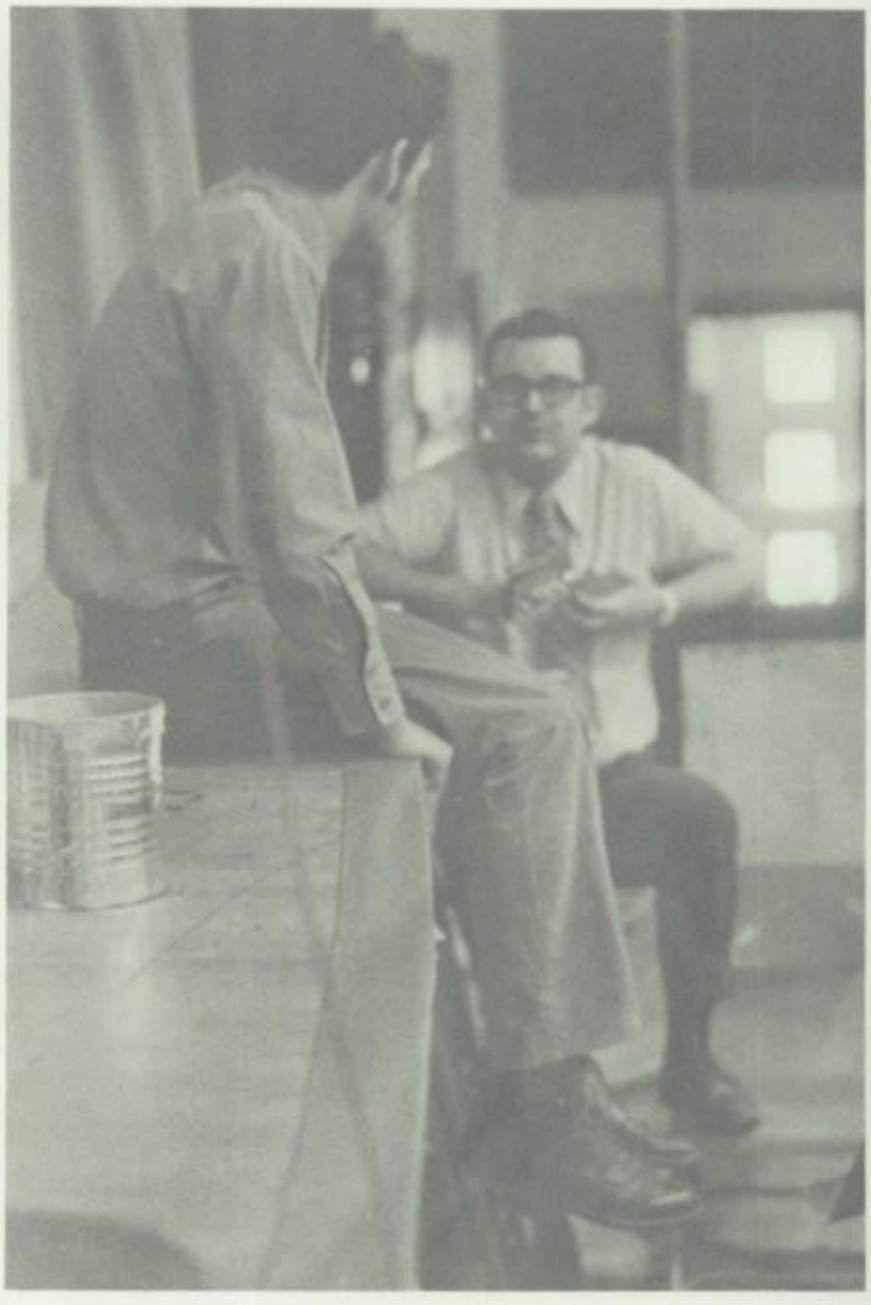
Veddie Clemans as the Queen and Greg Clemans as the Prince rehearse one of their "mother — son talk" scenes.

Diane McKinley and Elaine Rohwedder display their make-up for the black-lighted ballet scene.

In the meantime, the orchestra waits for their next cue, (Coke breaks help a lot). Deb Banes counts measures to her next cue.

Claudia Lemon is caught looking up from her homework to see if the next orchestra cue is close.

Still further behind the scenes, several people are responsible for putting together the whole show. Mrs. Hardesty, caught off guard above, spends hours teaching the vocal music portion of the show, then spends more hours directing and creating the costumes for the show. Show co-ordinator and orchestra director Mr. Gorden (facing camera) discusses the musical with drama director Mr. Clevenger.



Mr. Clevenger is pictured relaxing a bit and clowning with the skeleton of the Prince's pet "dragon" with Donna Westfall and Debbie Nelson. Deb performed and sang the lead role of the princess in the show.

Once Upon A

North White Stage

Beth Ryan halts in rehearsal to share a happy moment with the camera.

Rich Fehrenbacher, Jim Westerhouse, and Mike Lawson are shown in a scene. Most people will remember the show as it was seen on March 23, 24, 25. To those who were there, memories consist of many happenings. The hours of work, the laughter, the joy of working together and even, perhaps — those many musical meals for which only a fast coke was a substitute.

. . . but the life of a school is in daily events . . . Sheila perhaps practicing a solo . . . threeboys, but one date . . . Deb quietly happy . . . the school moves and life continues . . .

Student Council

The 1971-72 edition of Student Council demonstrated leadership in many areas. Meeting for a full hour each week, the Council sponsored many convocations such as The Irish Duo and Boone Family. The Council also held several dances. The installation of candy and soft drink machines was a Council action. Led very capably by Jeff Keplar as President, the Council this year earned new respect from the students and faculty.

Chorus Expands Program

Concert Choir made its first appearance this year. A select group of forty voices, the Choir performed at several area high schools as well as our own concerts. Following a drive for funds, the choir bought blue robes. The North White Concert Choir is pictured with the well-known Valhallas in the opening section of the book. The Valhallas continued performing at area social functions. Pictured above are the Valhallas performing at Christmas on Lafayette TV. They also appeared on Indianapolis TV. Full chorus, pictured below, presented several school programs as well as heavy participation in the musical "ONCE UPON A MATTRESS".

Veddie Clemans, Debbie Nelson, Claire Kleyla, Mrs. Carleen Hardesty.

The Band performed this year at several school concerts, basketball and football games. The North White Pep Band performed at other sports events. ONCE UPON A MATTRESS, a joint effort of band, chorus, and Drama Club, involved some members who formed the orchestra for the musical. The organ fund received another boost from a Benifit Concert featuring the type organ North White will purchase.
